STAND UP UNITED

AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM DEFENDING HUMAN RIGHTS

Stand Up United is an international team defending human rights. They are united in their struggle for equality, dignity and justice for all.

Wilter Nyabate is on the team. A mother of two and sole breadwinner, she lives in Soweto East, a suburb of Kibera, Kenya's largest slum. Like other families in Kibera, they live in poor housing with little access to clean water, toilets, health care or other basic services. As a member of the Soweto Forum, a local residents group, Wilter Nyabate campaigns for her community's right to live in a safe and healthy environment, free from the threat of forced eviction.

Be a champion of human rights: support Wilter Nyabate and the Soweto Forum in their campaign.
