Further information on UA 235/95 (AFR 24/15/95, 12 October 1995) - Prisoners of conscience / Fear of torture

EQUATORIAL GUINEA Felipe Ondo Obiang, former parliamentarian
Bonifacio Nguema Esono, former government minister

Amnesty International has learned that all of Equatorial Guinea's remaining political prisoners, including prisoners of conscience Felipe Ondo Obiang and Bonifacio Nguema Esono, were released by the end of November. The last prisoners were freed just before the visit to the country of the United Nations Special Rapporteur for Equatorial Guinea.

Felipe Ondo Obiang and Bonifacio Nguema Esono had been arrested on 11 October. Amnesty International has no details as to their treatment while in custody.

No further action by the Urgent Action Network is requested. Thank you to all who sent appeals.
