SUDAN Hassan Adam Ali, political activist

Amnesty International has learned that Hassan Adam Ali, a political activist from western Sudan who was arrested upon arrival in Khartoum in late January 1996 after he was deported from Jordan, was released on 29 March. The organization has no further information about his treatment in detention.

Amnesty International welcomes the news of his release as it had feared Hassan Adam Ali was at risk of "disappearance" while held in incommunicado detention.

No further action by the UA Network is requested. Many thanks to all who sent appeals on this case.
