Dear Prime Minister,

I am deeply concerned that the investigation into the October 2003 disappearance and killing of Sanjiv Kumar Karna, Durgesh Kumar Labh, Pramod Narayan Mandal, Shailendra Yadav and Jitendra Jha has not yet concluded. While I welcome the exhumation of their suspected remains in September 2010 and February 2011, I am dismayed that some of the accused in this case are not only still at large but have been promoted to positions of authority.

The families of these five men deserve to know what happened to their loved ones – they demand justice. I urge you to ensure that:

- the police investigation into this case is conducted in a prompt, fair and transparent manner;
- mechanisms are in place to protect witnesses giving evidence.

Yours sincerely,
