

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

DIARY NOTE

AI Index: EUR 01/011/2012
19 April 2012

New Amnesty International report on discrimination against Muslims in Europe

On 24 April 2012, Amnesty International is launching a report calling on European governments to take action against discrimination against Muslims.

The report Choice and prejudice: discrimination against Muslims in Europe, exposes the impact of discrimination on the ground of religion or belief on Muslims in several aspects of their lives, including employment and education and focuses on Belgium, France, the Netherlands, Spain and Switzerland.

For further information and to arrange for an interview please contact:

In London: Lydia Aroyo, Europe and Central Asia Press Officer, at +44 20 7413 5599
laroyo@amnesty.org

In Brussels: Peter Clarke, Media & Communications Officer, +32 (0) 2 548 2773
pclarke@amnesty.eu