

ROMA

HUMAN RIGHTS HERE RIGHTS NOW

Dear Vice-President Reding,

Every year, thousands of Roma are forced from their homes. Romani children are placed in segregated schools with substandard education. Romani parents are denied jobs and face poor health care. They are victims of hate violence and often left unprotected by the police. Roma face discrimination every day.

Now, 93,165 people from Europe and beyond, are urging you to use all your powers, including legal monitoring and political pressure, to guarantee the compliance of all the EU member states with EU anti-discrimination law and to uphold equal rights for all.
