UNITED ARAB EMIRATES Sarah Balabagan (f), Filipina national

Sarah Balabagan was released from prison in the United Arab Emirates on 31 July 1996. She was serving a one-year prison sentence, after initially being sentenced to death for the murder of her employer. During her trial, she stated that she had stabbed him because he had raped her. In addition to the prison sentence, she received 100 lashes at the beginning of this year (see original EXTRA and earlier updates for details).

Sarah Balabagan was released prior to the completion of her sentence, which would have been in October 1996, reportedly due to her good behaviour in prison. Her release was ordered by the President of the United Arab Emirates, Sheikh Zayad bin Sultan al-Nahyan.

Sarah Balabagan has already left the United Arab Emirates and is on her way home to the Philippines.
