Guantánamo anniversary: Amnesty International launches media resource centre

Amnesty International is publishing a media resource centre with up-to-date information, facts and figures, analysis and stories related to the US prison in Guantánamo Bay, Cuba.

The site, available at <http://www.amnesty.org/en/for-media/resources/counter-terror-with-justice>, is being launched as a resource for the 7th anniversary of the first transfers of detainees to Guantánamo -- on 11 January 2009.

Information on the site includes:

Facts and figures regarding US detentions at Guantánamo.

List of AI's country and legal experts available for comment, analysis and interviews in various languages. Information on current and recently released Guantánamo detainees.

AI's Framework for Ending Illegal Detention.

AI's recommendations for President Obama's first 100 days in Office.

Analysis of human rights violations committed by the US government in the context of the "war on terror", beyond Guantánamo.

Photos of current and former Guantánamo detainees.

Details of public actions and photo opportunities across the world where AI activists will be calling for the closure of Guantánamo.

AI's factual reports and analysis pieces related to Guantánamo, published since 2001.
