

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL MEDIA ADVISORY

AI Index: PRE 01/349/2008
11 August 2008

Amnesty International spokesperson available on South Ossetia human rights situation

Nicola Duckworth is Director for the Europe and Central Asia Programme, and was previously the organization's country specialist on the south Caucasus, travelling and doing research in Abkhazia and South Ossetia.

She currently takes the lead on providing political advice and strategic development for AI's work in Europe and Central Asia. She has worked in various roles for Amnesty International since 1983, and is also on the board of Martin Ennals Foundation for Human Rights Defenders.

If you would like to arrange an interview with Nicola about the human rights issues in the South Ossetia situation, please call the Amnesty International press office on +44 (0)20 7413 5566 or (out of office hours) on +44 7778 472 126.