Albania: Government failing to protect women from violence in the family Invitation to press conference -- 30 March

Amnesty International will hold a press conference to launch its report Albania -- Violence against Women in the Family: "It's not her shame", as part of the organisation's Stop Violence Against Women campaign.

The report highlights the violence women suffer in the family at the hands of their partners. It calls on the Albanian authorities to put in place safeguards against this violence, which affects at least a third of women in the country.

When: Thursday 30 March at 10.30am local time

Where: Vienna - Prague function rooms,
Rogner Hotel Europapark Tirana,
Bulevardi Dëshmoret e Kombit,
Tirana, Albania

Who: Dr Siân Jones, Balkans Researcher, Amnesty International
Jezerca Tigani, Europe and Central Asia Campaign Co-ordinator, Amnesty International
Edlira Haxhiymeri, Director of "Shelter for victims of domestic violence" in Tirana

Amnesty International speakers will be available for interviews in Albanian, French, Spanish and English.
