Israel/Occupied Territories/Palestinian Authority: Press briefing by Amnesty International mission

An Amnesty International delegation visited Gaza today and yesterday in connection with the launch of a new report tomorrow: "Without distinction -- attacks on civilians by Palestinian armed groups".

The mission is part of Amnesty International's on-going campaign to stop the killing of civilians on both sides. The delegates met leaders and representatives of Palestinian armed groups, non-governmental organizations and human rights activists and will speak tonight about the report and Palestinian reactions to it in a press briefing:

Wednesday 10 July 2002
at 19:30 hours
Jerusalem Hotel
Nablus Road
Jerusalem
(Damascus Gate)

The delegates include:

Daniel Bolomey, Director of Amnesty International Switzerland

Abdel Salam Sidahmed, Deputy Director of the Middle East Program

Liz Hodgkin, Researcher in the Middle East Program at the International Secretariat.
