Tunisia: Amnesty International visit

An Amnesty International delegation composed of three staff members of the organization's International Secretariat will visit Tunisia from 22 September to 3 October 2002.

The delegates will be seeking meetings with members of the Tunisian government, including the Minister of Justice and Human Rights and the Minister of the Interior, in order to discuss the organization's concerns in Tunisia. They also plan to meet human rights defenders, lawyers and other representatives of civil society.
