

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL MEDIA ADVISORY

AI Index: AFR 19/010/2013
11 December 2013

CAR: Increasing tension and alarming humanitarian situation

The security and humanitarian situation in the Central African Republic is deteriorating to alarming levels, says Amnesty International today.

The organisation is particularly concerned about the sectarian violence in the capital city.

Today, the Amnesty International team witnessed 15 bodies awaiting burial outside a mosque.

Urgent priorities that need to be addressed include the lack of security in key locations, such as hospitals and internally displaced people's camps and the overcrowding in the camps.

For more information and/or interviews please contact:

In London: Louise Orton on: +44 (0) 7961 421583 (mobile), or +44 7778472126 or email louise.orton@amnesty.org

In Bangui: Susanna Flood on 00236 72038120.