

IBRAHIM EZZ EL-DIN,
EGYPT

DISAPPEARED FROM THE STREETS OF CAIRO

Ibrahim Ezz El-Din was arrested on 11 June 2019 near his home in Cairo. But the police say they don't have him, and his family have no information about where he is or what has happened to him. It gets worse: he's the fifth person linked to his organization, which documents and campaigns against human rights violations in Egypt, to have been arrested in just three years. Across Egypt, hundreds of people are being disappeared by the state simply because they or their families oppose or criticize the government.
