control arms

Every year, millions of people suffer as a result of the irresponsible arms trade. In 2006, 153 governments voted at the United Nations to develop an Arms Trade Treaty (ATT) to control this deadly trade. We need to keep up the pressure on governments to secure an effective ATT and prevent arms transfers that fuel conflict, poverty and human rights abuses.

What you can do:

Please sign the attached card and send it to your local Member of Parliament to put pressure on your government to support an effective ATT.

Dear Member of Parliament,

Since 2003, the Control Arms campaign has been calling for a global, legally binding Arms Trade Treaty (ATT). This treaty must prevent international arms transfers if the weapons are likely to be used to commit atrocities.

In 2006, 153 governments voted at the United Nations General Assembly to start work on developing such a treaty. Governments are continuing to discuss the initiative at the UN.

We urge you to show your support for a strong and effective ATT.
