Abdoulie Kujabi, former National Intelligence Agency (NIA) Director, who has been held incommunicado since 27 March 2006, was reportedly brought to hospital in Banjul, the capital, on 6 April and is said to be in a "critical physical condition". Amnesty International is concerned that he may have been tortured in detention.

Furthermore, arrests have continued over the last few days in connection with an attempted coup that allegedly took place on 21 March. According to reports, Hon Sheriff Mustapha Dibba, Speaker of the House, Abdoulaye Kanaji Jawla, Member of Parliament for the APRC ruling party, Ngorr Secka, acting Deputy Director General of the NIA and businessman Pa Njie Guirigara were arrested on 6 April in Banjul. They are detained incommunicado and without charge, and are at risk of torture or ill-treatment.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send appeals to arrive as quickly as possible, in English or your own language:

- expressing concern at reports that Abdoulie Kujabi was brought to hospital and seeking information about his condition;
- expressing concern that at least 25 people are still detained incommunicado for their supposed involvement in an attempted coup;
- seeking assurances that they are not being tortured or ill-treated, and urging the authorities to give them regular access to their families, lawyers and any medical attention they may require;
- urging the authorities to release them immediately, unless they are to be charged with a recognizably criminal offence;
- if they are to be charged, asking for details of the charges against them and when they are to be put on trial.
