and 22 other members of the families of the 28 army officers executed on 24 April 1990 after an unfair trial

Amnesty International learned in late April that Kamal Abualgasim was released from detention on 2 March 1995, two days after he was arrested by security force officers. No further information is available about his detention.

The families of the executed officers continue to campaign for an investigation into the deaths of their relatives.

No further appeals are required at this time. Many thanks to all those who wrote appeals.
