

15th February 2012

Statistical analysis of deaths following police Taser use

According to data collected by Amnesty International since 2001, at least 500 people have died in the USA after being shocked with a Taser either during their arrest or while in jail. The statistical analysis below demonstrates the distribution of deaths following Taser use by state (figure 1), county (figure 2) and law enforcement agency (figure 3).

Figure 1

Figure 2

Figure 3

