

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL DIARY NOTE

AI Index: ASA 37/005/2012
14 March 2012

New Channel 4 film on Sri Lanka

A new film Sri Lanka's Killing Fields: War Crimes Unpunished is to be broadcast on UK television this evening on Channel 4 at 2255 GMT.

It documents events in the final days of armed conflict.

Sam Zarifi, Amnesty International's Asia-Pacific Director, appears in the film.

Sri Lanka's Killing Fields: War Crimes Unpunished, is a follow up to the critically acclaimed documentary Sri Lanka's Killings Fields, broadcast in 2011.

The Channel 4 programme will be available internationally online for 30 days from March 15 at: <http://www.channel4.com/programmes/4od>

To arrange interview with Sam Zarifi please contact Katya Nasim at katya.nasim@amnesty.org / + 44 (0) 207 413 5871 / + 44 (0) 7904 398 103

END/