ALBANIA:Hajdar Niman GJURIQI

Amnesty International has recently learned of the execution of Hajdar Gjuriqi.

The President of the Republic approved his death sentence on 1 June 1992 and it is likely that his execution was carried out a few days later. He had been sentenced to death in March 1992 by the district court of Tropoje for murder committed in the course of a robbery. This sentence was confirmed by the Supreme Court on 1 April 1992.

No further action is required on this case by the Urgent Action network. Thank you to all those who sent appeals.
