UA 281/08      Torture/ ill-treatment

TURKEY      Ozgur Karakaya (m) aged 22
Cihan Gun (m) aged 18

Died:      Engin Ceber (m), aged 29

---

Ozgur Karakaya, aged 22, 18-year-old Cihan Gun, and a 29-year-old man, Engin Ceber, were among a group of people arrested on 28 September during a demonstration and press conference in the Sariyer district of Istanbul. A lawyer for the three men told Amnesty International that the men were tortured in detention. On 10 October Engin Ceber died in hospital as a result of injuries he sustained while in detention. Ozgur Karakaya and Cihan Gun are still in custody at Metris Prison and continue to be at risk of torture and other ill-treatment, and require access to an urgent independent medical examination and appropriate medical treatment as required.

Their lawyer told Amnesty International that they were dragged by police at the scene of the demonstration during their arrest and were repeatedly beaten after they were transferred to Istinye Police Station and subsequently at Metris prison.

On 29 September, Ozgur Karakaya, Cihan Gun and Engin Ceber appeared in front of the Sariyer prosecutor, were charged with resisting police officers and were transferred to Metris prison in Istanbul. The statements by Ozgur Karakaya and Cihan Gun made to their lawyer include allegations of repeated beatings with wooden truncheons at the police station and during their detention in prison, being strip searched and soaked in water, being hit and kicked all over their bodies including their genitals. They state that this torture and ill-treatment continued over several days. Engin Ceber was subsequently taken to Bayrampasa State hospital on 7 October due to the injuries that he sustained and then transferred to Sisli Etfal hospital but died on 10 October.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The group was protesting against continued impunity in the case of Ferhat Gercek, an 18 year-old man who was shot by police last year on 7 October 2007, during the sale of the legal left-wing magazine Yuruyus. Amnesty International issued a World Wide Appeal for Ferhat Gercek: see <http://www.amnesty.org/en/library/info/NWS22/002/2008/en>
