FURTHER RECOMMENDED ACTION: You may send telegrams/telexes/faxes/express and airmail letters in Arabic, French, English or in your own language:

- expressing grave concern at these five executions, which Amnesty International considers as summary and arbitrary executions;
- expressing concern at the upsurge in the use of the death penalty in Egypt (51 death sentences have been passed by military courts since December 1992 and 35 executions have now taken place), and explaining Amnesty International's opposition to the death penalty as a violation of the right to life and the most extreme form of cruel and inhuman punishment;
- drawing attention to world trends to abolish or reduce the use of the death penalty, in accordance with Article 6 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, to which Egypt is a state party.
