April 2010 Index: ACT 30/002/2010

Stand Up United is an international team defending human rights. These 11 ordinary – yet extraordinary – people from around the world are standing up for their rights, and for yours. They all have a common goal – equality, dignity and justice for all.

Whether they defend the rights of migrants or of women, or of anyone else suffering violence and repression, they can be intimidated, threatened and sometimes even risk their lives. But they are able to continue their work because they have supporters from all around the globe.

Be a champion of human rights: be a Stand Up United supporter.

Who's in the team? Look inside and find out.
