SILENCED FOR SPEAKING OUT

Sonia Dahmani

📍 Tunisia

Sonia Dahmani is a lawyer who has dedicated her life to defending human rights. On 11 May 2024, security forces arrested Sonia. Her crime? Speaking out against issues like racism. She was convicted and sentenced on unfounded charges of “spreading false news” and imprisoned for 18 months. Sonia was conditionally released on 27 November 2025, but more politically motivated judicial proceedings against her are still pending.

Demand that the Tunisian authorities quash Sonia’s unjust sentences and immediately drop all charges against her.
